

The CHRISTMAS ORANGE

(By Frank Kay Anderson in December Issue of The Citrus Industry.)

I am the gold of the sunshine, the nectar of the flowers, the aroma of the tropic twilight when dusky night-fall slips silently upon a stilled and fragrant world.

I am a gleam of cheer to brighten the murk of a gray sky, a pledge of warmth and gladness to dull the menace of a chill wind that flutters dead leaves outside, a glint of perpetual summer against snow flakes hurrying past the window pane.

I am a token of love and remembrance, a jolly bulge in a chimneyside stocking, a cherished gift from Santa Claus.

I am Health. Within me is that which brings color to the cheek, gives zest to the appetite, and bids the body awake.

I am Wealth. The riches of India are the treasures I bring, for health is wealth, to all mankind.

I am Happiness. I radiate good cheer and symbolize the spirit of giving. I go hand in hand with unselfish service.

Chubby fingers fondle me, lean fingers caress me; rosy faces and wan hold for me a smile of welcome and delight. I am an accompaniment and a token of the Spirit of the Occasion.

I am the Christmas Orange.

MUTT AND JEFF COME

The announcement that Mutt and Jeff, the famous Bud Fisher comics, are headed this way should be welcome news to the millions of admirers and friends of these ubiquitous and irresistible funny jesters. They are to appear in a brand new play entitled "Mutt and Jeff's Honey-moon," in two acts and six scenes and will be the next attraction at the Howell theater, Wednesday, Dec. 13th.

The story is that of two husbands who find marital life is not all it is cracked up to be and seek some way to escape the perpetual strife that

STEADY SEARCH IS REWARDED

Many Unfortunate People Who Had Despaired of Regaining Health Are Now Rejoicing.

Thousands more people every day are being rewarded by their constant search for revived strength and endurance by the wonderful new treatment known as RE-CU-MA. It is an actual revelation to see the many folks who had worried through day after day in misery, now released from the clutches of bad health, weakness, nervousness, rheumatism, malaria, indigestion, headaches, etc., by a simple, pleasant and really remarkable discovery of modern science.

Authorities on health have long contended that the human system is fast degenerating on account of lack of proper and thorough elimination of waste matter, and the assimilation of the necessary vitamins from the food into the blood, which the system must have to nourish it, keep it alive, active and able to produce health, strength and endurance.

When your system is working right, like it does when RE-CU-MA is there to make it do right, your blood is filled with iron and vitamins—nourishment—and carries them to every part of the body and precious system to feed your withered tissue and worn nerves. Clear complexion, attractive appearance, strength and plenty of energy and endurance are the natural result.

RE-CU-MA is sold in Palatka at the City Drug Store and the leading druggists in every city.

There Were Others.

Dispatches tell of a hen in Okmulgee, Okla., that laid three eggs "inside of three minutes." Well, what of it? She isn't the only hen that ever associated with those three-minute men who were so numerous over the country only a few years ago. And you never can tell what will happen.

Ain't No Such Thing.

A news item says that "stingless bees have been discovered in Australia." Aw, get out! If they are stingless they are not bees. Nossir. Might as well tell about a "talkless woman." If a woman can't talk she's not a woman. Sure not. She's a wonder.

Just a Little While.

Newspapers talk about the "second Mrs. Tiernan." Well, anyway, she was the second Mrs. Tiernan merely for a second.

Another Mooted Question.

In years past there have been sevseems to be their lot ever since they took to themselves wives. The husbands, as might be expected, are interpreted by Mutt and Jeff. The latter endeavors to help out his pal. Of course, though he means well, his method of procedure is rather crude with the result that there are numerous complications and trials which have to be thoroughly and decisively corrected before the final curtain. The production is of the elaborate, pretentious sort, embodying any amount of novelties, humor, fun, laughter, melodies and surprises.

eral great problems. "What became of Charlie Ross?" was one of them. Another was: "Who struck Billy Patterson?" "How old is Ann?" was never successfully solved. Now there has evolved another: "Who killed Hall yb the Mills-side?" There are only two or three answers—and one of them must be right, even if the grand jury "gave it up."

He's Also Careless.

Just as soon as my wife read that George Harvey stuff about "women having no souls," she said: "That reminds me; I wish you'd take these shoes to the cobbler and have them half-soled!" I've come to the conclusion that George is a meddling old fool.
